R'Dogs Keep Rolling With 5-1 Win Over Augusta

Offense explodes with four runs in seventh, win streak matches season-high at five

The Charleston RiverDogs increased their win streak to five as they won the first game of the series against the Augusta GreenJackets 5-1 Thursday night at Joseph P. Riley, Jr. Park.

With the game tied 1-1 after the first six and a half innings, the RiverDogs sent eight batters to the plate and piled on four runs in the bottom of the seventh. Billy Fleming led off with a single, advanced to second on a sacrifice bunt, and Isaias Tejeda singled to put runners on the corners with one out.

Griff Gordon stepped in and with the runners going, laid a suicide squeeze bunt down the third base line to plate Fleming. After a Radley Haddad walk, Devyn Bolasky broke the game open with a two-run triple to right-center field. Bolasky scored as well when the relay throw to third caromed into Augusta's dugout.

Augusta scored first in the top of the third on Will Callaway's RBI double over the head of Austin Aune in left field. The RiverDogs evened the score in the bottom of the fourth. Vince Conde, Bo Thompson, and Fleming hit three consecutive singles. Fleming's single drove in Conde from second base.
